

Make your summer count

The opportunities are endless, but the time is limited. Jesus said, “The harvest truly is plentiful, but the workers are few.” And again, “There comes a time when no man shall work.”

Children everywhere are waiting to hear the precious Gospel. During the summer months, they gather on the playgrounds, in the parks, at a neighbor’s house to ride bicycles, around the ice cream truck, and on the sidewalks.

The summer is short, but wherever the boys and girls gather, we can take the precious truth of God’s Word to them. Children can hear about the saving power of Jesus Christ. Families can be impacted, not just for the summer, but also for eternity!

Summertime KINGS Clubs™

Summer Missionaries (ages 15 and older) are trained to reach children in local neighborhood homes or on the playgrounds.

For about an hour each day, the Summer Missionary teaches a visualized Bible lesson, memory verse, continuing cliffhanger missionary story, songs, and more.

A Summer Missionary must be a dedicated and growing Christian who has successfully completed our intensive Summer Missionary Training School held in June.

Open-Air Work

At other times, the Summer Missionary will have opportunity to do open-air witnessing where children gather together but no club is scheduled.

KINGS Camp™

An exciting overnight camping experience for boys and girls ages seven to twelve is held each summer in July. The camp facilities are located near Butler, Pennsylvania, about one hour from our ministry headquarters in Washington, PA.

A day at KINGS Camp offers many spiritually rewarding activities, including Bible classes, evening chapel, missionary emphasis, Scripture memory work, and cabin talks.

The rest of the camp experience is complete with recreation, team time, creative activities, archery, ropes and obstacle courses, water slide, exciting competitions, campfires, and great home-cooked food.

Teen counselors and adult staff are always needed to make the camp a success.

Kiddie Day Kamp

Kiddie Day Kamp provides the opportunity to teach preschoolers about God's love for them. It is open to children ages four to six.

Kiddie Kamp is held at the CEO Inc. headquarters in Washington, Pennsylvania for two weeks each summer.

The day camp program is jam-packed full of Bible teaching, missionary emphasis, creativity activities, Gospel magic, "puddle" time (wading pool), quiet time, singing, recreation, and more.

Volunteers are the key to making this summer outreach to the littlest ones a success.
